Philadelphia, PA and Tulsa, OK- March 1, 2021—Arctic Glacier, LLC, a leading provider of premium ice products and related services, announced today the acquisition of Southeastern Ice, Oklahoma’s premiere provider of cubed and block ice. This acquisition further builds upon Arctic Glacier’s expanding footprint of capacity to service customers of all sizes and brings to the ice company a team of great Associates, along with world-class manufacturing, warehouse and distribution infrastructure.

“We are extremely excited to join forces with Southeastern Ice as they have an outstanding reputation in the marketplace for providing great customer service. Their dedication to community, customer service and premium quality, along with their very talented and engaged team of Associates, makes them a perfect fit for our culture and growth plans,” said Richard Wyckoff, CEO and President of Arctic Glacier Inc.

Established in 1998, and located in Wilburton, OK, Southeastern Ice has an additional distribution facility in Madill, OK, providing cubed and block ice to a very broad base of grocery stores, mass merchants, restaurants, c-stores, dollar stores, as well as many industrial and commercial companies across the Southwestern U.S. Additionally, Southeastern Ice possesses a large scale and state-of-the-art automated purified ice manufacturing facility with sufficient production, warehouse and distribution capacity to service this rapidly expanding market.

“We have always admired Arctic Glacier’s first-class reputation and given the tremendous opportunities we both see in the marketplace; we are very excited and confident that this is the best investment for our customers and our Associates.” Said Destry Harber, Southeastern Ice Founder and CEO.

The transaction represents Arctic Glacier’s 11th acquisition in 2 years. Financial terms of the private transaction were not disclosed.
